ABSTRACT

This booklet contains a history of each federal department's regulatory actions and Presidential Executive Orders on Title V of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Sections 504, 503, 502, and 501, from January 1974 through December 1982. It provides a chronological listing of the types and extent of regulatory and policymaking actions affecting implementation of specific Title V sections. The publication was designed to assist in searches of specific Federal Register publications on Executive Orders or Title V sections by those entities having administrative, adjudicating, and policy setting responsibilities relating to Section 504 implementation. Of the 150 entries in the publication covering these four Title V sections (2 Executive Orders and 148 regulatory memorandums), 108 entries relate to Section 504, 9 entries concern Section 501, 25 relate to Section 502, 5 concern Section 503, and 3 involve Section 505. The information is listed in the two most typical modes of referring to these regulatory and policy changes. In part 1, departments or agencies are listed alphabetically and actions taken appear in chronological order. Part 2 is a chronological list of publications in the Federal Register, while part 3 provides a brief chronological and statistical summation of all listed actions. (Author/KC)

PREFACE

The Federal Rulemaking Chronicle on Title V of the Federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973 was prepared by the Office of Statewide Compliance Coordination, State and Consumer Services Agency, State of California. The booklet contains a history of each Federal department's regulatory actions and Presidential Executive Orders on Title V of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Sections 504, 503, 502 and 501 from January 1974 through December 1982. It provides a chronological listing of the types and extent of regulatory and policymaking actions effecting implementation of specific Title V sections. It was designed to assist easy reference of specific Federal Register publications on Executive Orders or Title V sections by those entities having administrative, adjudicating and policy setting responsibilities relating to Section 504 implementation. In fact, of the 150 entries in the publication covering these four Title V sections - two Executive Orders and 148 regulatory memoranda - 108 relate to Section 504. Nine entries concern Section 501, 25 relate to Section 502, five were Section 503 and three involve Section 505.

For ease of use, the information has been listed in the two most typical modes of referring to these regulatory and policy changes. In Part I departments or agencies are listed alphabetically and actions taken appear in chronological order. Part II, is a chronological list of publication in the Federal Register. Additionally, Part III provides a brief chronological and statistical summation of all listed actions.
